January Big Idea: Responsibility	We are pleased to announce that on March 8th we will host author and illustrator Daniel Kirk. Please see the attached flyer to pre-order one or two of his books. Thank you to Mrs. Chiu and the Euclid School PTA for making this happen!
Responsibility is a set of behaviors that include being dependable, making good decisions, and taking responsibility for your actions. Responsibility can be as simple as helping with household chores or taking care of a pet. This month, we're describing it as proving you can be trusted with what's expected of you. Animal: Vulture - Vultures are essentially Mother Nature's clean-up crew, feeding on fresh carcasses of dead animals. A vulture is a large bird of prey with a head and neck more or less bare of feathers. We are all grateful that the vulture takes its clean-up responsibility seriously! Color: Mahogany

On Monday we will be at the 1/2 way point of Trimester 2. Please take this time to log onto Genesis to monitor your child's performance during this trimester. The 2nd Trimester ends on March 18th.

We continue to go outside during Recess, please ensure your child is dressed appropriately.
